

Financial Aid Office

2022-2023 Verification of High School Completion Status

Student Name

Student ID

In order to be eligible for financial aid, you must provide one of the following documents that indicate your high school completion status when you will begin college in the 2021-2022 academic year:

A copy of the student's high school diploma.

A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.

A state certificate or transcript received by a student after the student passed a State-authorized examination that the State recognizes as the equivalent of a high school diploma (GED test, HiSET, TASC, or other State-authorized examination).

An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.

For a student who was homeschooled in a state where state law requires the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschooling (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.

For a student who was homeschooled in a state where state law does not require the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschooling (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript, or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and includes a statement that the student successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.
