E. Review and Approval of Faculty Promotions

Dr. Terrell reported that a decision on whether to promote three faculty members had been deferred from the spring of 2016 to the fall of 2016. Given the resignation of one of the faculty members, there are now two promotions to consider. Dr. Terrell met with P. Reardon to discuss budget implications, and both agree that both faculty members should be promoted, retroactive to July 1, 2016. Dr. Terrell indicated that both promotions would have an $8,000 annual budget impact. L. Godlove indicated classified staff might have an issue, and Dr. Terrell responded that there is a difference between faculty promotions and
